Royal Insurance Company.

FIRE AND LIFE.

CAPITAL TWO MILLIONS. STERLING.

This important company, in many respects the greatest of its kind in the present age, has appointed an agency in this city. The head-offices are in London and Liverpool with branches in Dublin, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Manchester, Bristol, Birmingham, Sheffield, Leeds, Newcastle, Southampton, Montreal, Toronto and other cities.

The ROYAL is remarkable; for the promptitude and liberality of its settlements: for the largest life bonuses (£2 per cent per annum) ever continuously declared during 15 years by any Co.; for the enormous extent of its transactions, shewing £'00,000 in new life assurances for 1862, and a Fire revenue of £300,000 per annum; for its security, which has given rise to the proverb "as safe as the Royal;" for the accumulated funds in hand, over one million sterling; for its annual income, over half-a-million sterling; and for the correct calculation of its mortality tables. Hence the English press of all countries, including over 90 leading papers, speaks in the highest terms of this company.

The report for 1863 shews that all the property of the Co. amounting to £344,070 is real and substantial property: "the amount now exceeds one million sterling. The increase, during 14 years, on Fire business was 900 per cent, and on Life 1350 per cent.

MESSRS. H. A. GREEN AND Co. are authorised to issue policies for Fire and Life to a very large amount, at moderate premiums, the Co. being anxious to extend its foreign business, which already shews an annual revenue of £300,000. Life claims can be settled without reference to England. For further particulars please apply to

1. To compound interest on the bonds purchased by the capitals received by the Company.
2. To a propertionate share of the capitals and interest of those who die in their respective sections.
3. To a proportionate share of the Capitals and Interests of forfeited subscriptions.
4. To a proportion of gains resulting from increased value of the National Bonds acquired by the inversion of funds.

In the second form the Insured claims:
1. Compound Interest on the National Bonds purchased by the Association,
2. A proportionate share of the Interest due on the Capitals of those who die in the respective sections, which capitals are returned to the subscribers
3. A proportion of the interest due on forfeited shares.
4. A proportionate share of the profits arising from the increased value of the National Bonds, acquired by inversion of funds.

Finally, in the third form, gives a right to the corresponding interest produced by the Bonds purchased with their subscriptions, and the successive reinvestment of such interest, effected quarterly, when the coupons are paid up by the public treasury.

So marvellous are the benefits arising from the employment of Capitals in Public Funds, assisted by the combinations effected by "La Bienhechora," based upon the Mortality Tables of Deparcieux, and the interest produced by the 3 per cent. Consolidated Bonds, that taking for a model, the result given by other companies established precisely in the same form and basis, but with an accumulative interest much inferior to that gained by the "Bienhechora," that it is enabled to present as positive the following tables shewing the gradual progression of capitals for a subscription of:

FORGERY OF TRADE-MARKS.

The agents of Tennent's beer, Messrs. Brownell and Co., have called on us to enter a protest against the nefarious swindling practised in Buenos Ayres, with such success and impunity, in the imitation of their brands and corks to sell a spurious article under their accredited name. The abuse is so familiar to all our readers on this side of the Atlantic, that when we called public attention to it some years ago, we were laughed at, as if we had taken up some "flat, stale and unprofitable" subject, such as the Evils of Smoking, or the utility of shaving one's beard.

In fact, the evil was regarded as irremediable, being tacitly protected by the laws of the country, and embracing every staple article, beer as well as calico, which is imported into the country.

This class of forgery is now the best business in town, and not only gives employment to hundreds of hard-working people, but is protected by the private banks, even to the preference of more vulgar trades and professions. The distillers or manufacturers of Tennent's ale, Robin's brandy, and all classes of wines, are proverbially wealthy and among the leading bill-discounters of the city. The lithographers' art is almost exclusively confined to making labels, and a visit to their printing-offices will shew the stranger how beautifully the most varied and elaborate marks of all the principal firms in Europe are taken off in Buenos Ayres.

But it would require more than our space can afford to describe the ramifications and extent of this business, as well in Buenos Ayres, as throughout the camp towns and the Provinces, where the names of Tennent, Byas and Jules Robin are familiar "as household words:" but the works of these worthy men are totally unknown, or so horribly plagiarised as to be unrecognisable and positively injurious. Of late even Ind Coope has begun to be submitted to the same fate, and such is the daring of the forgers, the ineptitude of the laws, the sympathy of the banks, the impotence of the injured parties, and the vititated palate and morals of the public, that the Crime stalks abroad in open day, boastfully professes its infamy, and with its borrowed plumage invades the best circles of society,

Who forgets the notorious Boutinet, selling "rot-gut" by wholesale, and enjoying a credit at the River-Plate Bank that honest men might envy. Nor would it be fair to charge the English Bank with knowingly aiding a dishonest livelihood, or lending money to an establishment of fraud and forgery, although we question if any bank in England would advance money to persons engaged, in such a line of business. Morality however, varies with climate, and what Byron said of adultery in Spain is true of adulteration in Buenos Ayres.

Fancy the surprise of Mr. Brownell, on visiting one of these distilleries last week, to find the proprietor not only unabashed but so amiable as to shew him (knowing who his visitor was) the skilful manner in which even Tennent's brand on the corks was imitated, and the various processes used in converting the primary liquid into the renowned English ale. He showed him also the forged brands and trade-marks of other houses and confessed that this "honest way of turning a penny" proved very lucrative.

In this state of things we think Mr. Brownell may almost despair, although he has confided his case to the able hands of Dr. Elizalde, with the view of trying to get the same law of Trade-marks passed here as in England, and which is now even enforced in that country of imitations, Germany. This will secure the rights of property, being based on a principle of justice, and the German law-givers rightly judged that it would serve the interests of trade, for home-manufactures stand on their own merits, and the system of imitation can only succeed for a short season while inflicting lasting injury on the demand for the genuine article.

Mr. Brownell must begin with the Banks and Government, by shewing the impolicy and injustice of the fraud, for if the art of forgery be encouraged in this particular, the lithographers may soon begin a more extensive and objectionable business in the bank-note line, if indeed some clever engravers have not already done so, owing to the confused notions of morality and the impunity of the laws, about using another's name through harmless inadvertence.

THE MURDER AT THE GOVERNMENT-HOUSE.

The judicial proceedings are still kept very secret, and what little news filters through the Escribanos and officials is disjointed and unreliable. Some of the news yesterday is confirmed beyond doubt, more is contradicted or uncertain.

It seems all the accomplices are not yet known, but the porter has confessed a good deal. Silva had only $300 upon when murdered, but they expected he had much more. The loaded pistol found in the press shows that the murderous intention was formed several days before, until the rope was preferred, as a safer means. Dr. Amoede thinks the body was not put behind the presss till Friday night, as the drops of blood seemed recent, but others think Silva was not quite dead when hanged there, as the legs shew signs of struggling. It is perfectly unaccountable why the murderers did not throw the body into the street at night as no suspicion would have attached to the Government-house, and the police-report would simply be "that a man was murdered in calle Moreno by some one unknown."

THE SOLDIER PELLEGRINI.

We are happy to announce that the Italian soldier Luigi Pellegrini who was condemned to death by a court-martial for striking his superior officer, has had his sentence commuted. He was to be shot to-day, but public opinion aided by the press was strongly pronounced in favor of the prisoner, and a petition bearing 20,000 signatures was yesterday presented to President Mitre, who wisely exercised his prerogative of clemency, by sparing the unhappy youth.

The circumstances of the case shew that Pellegrini was "more sinned against than sinning," and we do not hesitate to assert that if the sentence were carried into effect, not even the rigor of a military tribunal could shield it from the charge of monstrous and unjust.

Pellegrini indeed was guilty of knocking down his superior officer, and this is death according to the codes of discipline, but the officer had first outraged all laws, civil and military by striking him with his sword, an assault which no man could be expected to suffer tamely. The respect due to an officer is forfeited when he commits himself so far; and in the British army he would be at once degraded and dismissed the service. No insolent language on the part of Pellegrini could justify the assault, and yet we hear nothing of the officer, who was the first aggressor, being brought to trial. By striking the corporal he placed himself on the same level, and the offence resolves into a common assault between two soldiers, for which both should suffer some hours in the lock-up.

Discipline in the Argentine army is too lax, and we would gladly see the military-tribunals institute severity in all cases, but this should begin with the officers, and at the frontier posts there are flagrant abuses much more callling for attention than a squabble at the Retiro barracks.

Good God! the prisons are full of cold-blooded assassins who have deliberately murdered unoffending citizens, and these fellows are eating beef at the public expense, while a brave but hot-headed soldier is placed on the "banquillo"—

> How many a traitor to his God and King,
> Escaped the death that was reserved for Eyng.

Pelligrini, is a native of Italy, aged 23 years, bearing an excellent character, and appearing on the Legion Militar muster-roll as 2nd corporal. In 1859, while yet a youth, he enlisted as a volunteer under Garibaldi, and was present at the battles of Magenta and Solferino, for which he gained a medal. He was sent out some time ago by the Argentine recruiting officer, Sr. Calvari, of Genoa, and the present is the first complaint that appears against him on the books.

We should be glad to learn that his superior officers, and especially the individual who gave such provocation, affixed their names to the petition which has happily rescued him from an imminent and disgraceful death. The officer was not seriously injured, but only frightened, and thy affair will after all be productive of good, if it serve as a caution to officers of hasty temper, and soldiers wanting in respect to their superiors.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

No packet, no steamer from Montevideo. Yesterday was rather a dull day in town, and a hard one for editors. The Pavon arrived in due time from Rosario, bringing us files from the interior. The news will be found in another column. The state of affairs in Cordova is not at all satisfactory: the Provincial Government is displaying some little energy, but persons who know more about Cordova than we do, assert that the Pizarros have a very strong party, and the Government is too weak to cope with them. But the honor of the country is at stake, and it behoves the National Government to exact the most rigorous justice, as the murder of Dr. Posse is one of the most outrageous acts ever perpetrated in this Republic.

Dr. D'Amico has retired from the 'Nacional.' Our evening colleague seems to have the good fortune to be always changing editors. There is not another paper in town that has had so many editorial changes during the last five years as the 'Nacional.'

The Spanish iron-clad frigate, 'Numancia,' has created the greatest curiosity in Montevideo, as she will remain in the river Plate until the captain receives advices from Admiral Palleja. We hope she will make a trip to Buenos Ayres. If not, we strongly recommend our War Minister to make a trip down to the Mount to inspect her, in order to be able to make a lucid report to Congress on the great superiority of iron-clads over passenger steamboats converted into war vessels.

The 'feria,' or agricultural exhibition at Belgrano, has been postponed at the request of several estancieros. It will not now take place until the 1st September.

Our talented friend, Mr. Rom, the manager of the Bolsa, purposes starting a new paper, to be called 'El Eco del Comercio.' We have no doubt it will prove an interesting commercial journal.

Mr. Bell, of Montevideo, has laid before the new Government a project for a railway from the city to Union; and, as far as we can learn, Governor Flores is very desirous that the enterprise should be carried out.

To-day the murderer of Reyes is to be shot in Junin. The unfortunate culprit's name is Sisto Quiroga, a Cordovese by birth. The particulars concerning this murder we published some time since, and are of a character to justify the extreme penalty of the law being carried out.

Our friends from the south are in great spirits now that the rain has come, and the locomotives run out to Samborombon. We saw an English estanciero the other day, who came into town from Samborombon. He says that it is the fault of the agents of the company that so few shares have been taken by the estancieros, and that if proper applications were made to the leading estancieros they would all subscribe willingly.

There was a great hubbub in Calle Florida the other day, a jeweller's canary being devoured by a photographer's cat, for which said jeweller shot the photographer's cat. The artistic owner of the defunct cat descended like a 'wolf on the fold' into the goldsmith's quarters, and the affrighted watchmaker fled to the Policia for protection.

The Foreign Races are advertised for the 25th inst., the first race to take place at 12 o'clock sharp. We hope to see a good attendance on the course, as the committee have gone to great trouble about the approaching meeting. Persons who feel disposed to subscribe and become members can do so at our office, where they will be duly installed.

The widows are loud in complaining against the Government for non-payment of their pensions: they reallly ought to be a little more patient, as Congress was very generous with them last session.

Our military men are all plunged into the greatest suspense, owing to the Minister of War having countermanded the departure of the Battalion "Charlone." Some officers believe that the reason of the order is that the Government wants to see what the Paraguayan Congress intends doing, before these soldiers go to the frontier.

The last opponent to Flores has given in to the new Government—Colonel Cames. In the camps of the Banda Oriental there is now not a single opposer to the Government. We hope therefore to see the most effective camp reform introduced, and the vagrant soldiers at once looked after. In the district of the Rio Negro we hear from an English estanciero that the woods are full of deserters, &c.; we trust that Governor Flores will at once direct the juez de paz to call these fellows up, and make them embrace some visible and proper means of livelihood.

We regret to say that we can find out no further particulars respecting the loss of the Fanny. The sailors who were so providentially saved have not as yet come to town: when they arrive we hope to be able to get details.

We perceive that the Government has paid Messrs. Casares and Sons eight hundred patacons as subscription to the 'Brazil and River Plate Mail,' and $322.45 to the 'Nacion Argentina,' also $57 14 cts. to Benn & Co., for 200 copies of the 'Argentine Citizen.'

We have to thank the Minister of Hacienda for a copy of the Custom-house Report for the year 1863: it contains many interesting data, and we will review it from time to time. It speaks badly for the Custom-house authorities that they are so much behind their time. This report we should have received exactly twelve months ago. We notice that the total value of exports to Belgium for 1863, was four millions six hundred and ninety thousand pats. and to England only three millions forty nine thousand pats. whilst the United States amounts to four millions three hundred and ninety thousand patacons.

Yesterday we had a kind of Scotch mist in town, very disagreeable to the citizens, but glorious weather for our friends in the camp. The farmers are all in good spirits again, and we have reason to believe that the rain is just came in time to save the estancieros from a bad winter.

People who have spare money ought to attend the real estate sales going on every day. Houses are knocked down sometimes at half their value, and the principal purchasers are Italians or Basques, who have a little ready money laid by,

Grave complaints are sent to us about the delays in the Government house, in the Public credit office. We are assured that claims against the old Parana Government presented last year have not yet been dispatched.

On Tuesday there was a noticeable activity in the port, it being the Emperor of Brazil's birthday; all the gunboats were firing away half the day, and Argentine war-vessels shaking the very bolts out of their sides responding. When this was over, two or three boats were busy going round to the ships, some philanthropic gentlemen having pushed off with duplicate petitions to save the life of Peregrini. All the Brazilian officers signed. Such a busy day in the outer and inner roads we have seldom seen before.

At four o'clock yesterday afternoon there was an imposing crowd around the National Government House: we mingled with the mob, and as far as we could learn the intention was to chair President Mitre home to his private house in front of Mr. Geoghegan's hotel. This European system of showing popularity we are glad to see introduced here. The cause of the ovation was an invitation by the 'Tribuna' to display in this manner the people's thanks to the President for sparing the life of the unfortunate soldier who was sentenced to be shot. We consider that the President did right in extending mercy to the poor soldier.

> The quality of mercy is not strained,
> It droppeth as the gentle rain from Heaven
> Upon the place beneath: it is twice blest:
> It blesseth him that gives, and him that takes.

A Brazilian gunboat arrived yesterday afternoon from Montevideo and brought the news that the packet had not arrived up to late on Tuesday evening. We expect her in this morning.

THE COLISSEUM.

On Tuesday we visited the new music hall in Calle Parque, which after grave discussion has been ultimately christened 'The Colisseum.' The building covers the whole site purchased by the committee in 300,000$, and when finished will be one of the most ornamental edifices in this city.

The front of the building faces on Calle Parque, and is tastefully decorated, with the appropos motto.

"Artibus et Musis,"

and we understand on the balustrade over the azotea will be placed three figures of the Muses, which are being executed in Europe. The vestibule is wide and lofty, on either side of which are robe-rooms for ladies and gentlemen.

Two large doors afford convenient entrances into the concert-room. The Hall itself is lofty, wide and capacious, every attention has been paid to the acoustic arrangements; the ceiling, which is 14 varas high, has three large apertures, which will be covered with glass, the centre one will contain fifty jets, and the other two, thirty each, will make in all 110 burners. The very newest arrangement for lighting halls in Europe will be introduced, and the burners which shed the light, being covered with glass, will be hidden from view. The dimensions of the hall are 14 varas by 30 varas, and in order not to interfere with the sound there will be no galleries. It is calculated that the hall will easily accommodate from 500 to 600 persons, including singers. Immediately behind the hall is the supper-room, which is 9 varas by 14, and here, with the intention of the committee, will flow the sparkling wine for singers and auditors.

A small patio covered with glass, and a ladies' retiring-room are to the left of the supper-room, whilst still in the rear is another but much larger glass-covered patio devoted to the use of the smoky lords of creation. Then follow servants' apartments, kitchen, &c.: the kitchen range is one of the finest in Buenos Ayres, having cost over eight thousand dollars.

Owing to the unceasing efforts of a distinguished musical broker, the work has proceeded with unusual celerity, and it is supposed that in about three months from the date the Coliseum will be inaugurated. It will cost when finished close on one million two hundred thousand dollars, a good round sum; but the Coliseum will meet a want long felt in Buenos Ayres.

NEWS FROM THE PROVINCES.

The Rosario papers of Tuesday contain little news, but join in the clamor about Posse's assassination, and call for Federal interference in Cordova. The "Comospolita" denies the statement of the "Ferro-Carril," that Mr. Perkins came to Buenos Ayres, to solicit subsidy from the National Government for the former paper. Mr. Klappenback and brother arrived on Monday en route for San Juan. Sr. Campillo will be named prime minister for Sta Fé: the election of a Senator for Congress was to come off last Sunday in that city, the candidates being Zuviria and Granel.

The mails from the Interior bring dates, Salta 17th, Tucuman and Santiago 26th ult., and Cordova 10th inst.

In Salta some tedious law-suits were terminated with a general scrimmage among the citizens, but nothing serious occurred.

There is a regular fever in Santiago about indigo, and Sor. Fontan de Quintin has asked permission of Government to establish a factory for production of this article, which is said to be even better than that of Guatemala.

The only news from Tucuman is the opening a new coffee house similar to the finest on the Boulevard des Italiens at Paris.

PARANA.

The 'Litoral' of the 11th inst. reports some disorders during Carnival in the shape of an anti-Brazilian demonstration. We have no news about our friend Mr. Neville Mortimer, whose railway surveys were causing such a sensation.

THE POSSE MURDER.

GREAT EXCITEMENT IN CORDOBA.

The Governor tries to appear innocent of the murder of Dr. Posse, by arresting others of the soldiers and officers, but Major Pizarro, the commander and author of the whole affair is unmolested. Four more Deputies resigned, and the agitation was so great that the "Eco" doubts if Sor. Ferreyra will be able to hold power long. Dr. Echenique attempted to defend the Governor and Pizarro, but the public voice is loud against the horrible murder, and people feel they are living under a Government akin to that of Dahomey. After shooting Posse and Cires, the troops (National Guards), under Pizarro, went through the streets firing indiscriminately: Juan and Pedro Posse narrowly escaped, hiding in a door-way. Sr. Giacometti's shop was broken open, searched, and the owner put in prison, Sr. Corti and Mr. Bresigner had the same fate. A German hatter, named Boggild, was fired at behind his counter, and his doors broken in by the military. Messrs. Ghibellini, Solari, and Repelto were also taken, and condemned be shot if they spoke a word. The Tribunal of Justice is going through the formality of a process. The 'Eco' rejoices at the realization of Echegaray's land scheme, but events like the last will not encourage immigration. The third member of the unfortunate Paz family has died of his wounds: nothing is known of the assassins.

CENTRAL ARGENTINE RAILWAY.

The "Eco de Cordoba" publishes the following letter from the contractors of the above line to the resident Directors in that city.

To Messrs Alvarez, Mendez and Fragueiro.

Rosario Feb. 19th. 1865.

Dear Sirs.

In compliance with your wishes, we have the pleasure to inform you that earthworks of the Railway will reach the Carcarañá in 4 or 5 weeks more. The works in that river were suspended on the 23rd of October last, owing to a great flood, from which the engineers narrowly escaped, and since that date the water has continued so high as to prevent laying the foundations of the bridge and cause a great impediment to further progress. The iron-bridge is coming out from England on board the brig Mary Stowe which will arrive at Rosario in 5 or 6 weeks.

There was some delay in the arrival of iron sleepers, the founders failing in England to carry out their contract, but by latest dates two large cargoes were ready to leave for Rosario.

The English ship Lord of the Manor has arrived with carriages for 164 persons and 30 luggaje waggons capable of holding 28,800 arrobes, besides 9 other cars and engines for the traffic of the line.

One vessel has arrived with a cargo of rails, and two others are hourly expected.

The station at Carcarañá is finished, and that of Tortugas will be commenced in 15 days.

When once we have the bridge over the Carcarañá the progress of the line will be very rapid, and it is hoped that next month (March) the river will fall so as to enable us to continue the works.

Here you have, gentlemen, a general report of the Argentine Central Railway works, and before the end of the month, the line will be marked out as far as the city of Cordova.

We have the honor to salute you, and state that our partner Mr. Wheelwright will pay a visit to your city by the end of March.

We are &c.

Brassey, Wythes & Wheelwright.

MR. ROBERTS, THE STANDARD CHAMPION, AT THE ANTIPODES.

The Australian papers received by the last mail, contain particulars of a series of seven matches played by Mr. J. Roberts in New South Wales. In the first match, a Mr. Fagan, a resident of the colony, receiving 500 points in 1,000, had a try, but Roberts beat him in three hours and a quarter by 127 points. His second antagonist was Mr. Fulford, of Maitland, held to possess more than the average ability of colonial players, to whom Roberts gave 600 points in 1,000. The champion scored 500 in an hour and a quarter, and was out in two hours and twenty-five minutes, winning the game by 171 points. Mr J. Josephson next tackled Roberts, receiving 600 points, but he was easily beaten by 114 points. Roberts's fourth match was with Norcliffe, whose chance was about the same as his predecessors; he got up to 887, when Roberts scored out again, winning by 113 points. Mr. Sydney Lambert was next accommdated with a game, receioving 600 out of 1,000. This proved one of the best games of the series. In the last match of the series, the Champion gave Mr. Sydney Lambert 700 points—extravagant odds to those doubting the fact stated by the others that he could score what he liked. On this occasion, at all events, he found his master. Prior to the match, Roberts expressed some misgivings as to the result of the game, and these must have increased very soon after the opening of the play. Lambert made some pretty good breaks at starting, and had scored 136 to Roberts's 201. With breaks of 45, 63, 27, and others less considerable, Roberts had earned his 431 when Lambert reached his 900. At the half-stage of the game, however, the Campion with 501, was 427 points behind. After the interval, he made many splendid efforts to improve his position, but was frequently thwarted by his opponent's ball being so left that if cannoned upon it must be holed; hence he frequently had to do his best from the red alone. Still, he made breaks of 45, 27, 63, 55, and one of 150. He made his 800 when Lambert was 976, but excepting for a break of 36 he did not afterwards score heavily. As Lambert made th last hazard the score stood—Lambert 1,002, Roberts 890. Lambert's highest break was 21, In Roberts's highest, that of 150, he scored consecutively seventeen spot hazards, and of these, during the match, he scored forty-four—a comparatively small number. Roberts was enthusiastically applauded at various periods of the playing, not only when he was scoring and making breaks, but at times when the awkward lay of the balls compelled him to have recourse to some of his fine forcing shots. Mr. Lambert also fell in for a fair share of acclamation from the spectators, for he not only played a good average game, but occasionally made very fine losing hazards with slow twists, at times also playing good strengths for breaks. He won the match by 110 points, and scored 300 to 890 of his able antagonist.

MR. WILCKE'S LAND-GRANT.

One of the true mines of the Argentine territory—a mine better than its gold and silver of San Juan or its copper of Cordoba and Catamarca—is about to be opened at the northern part of Santa Fé province. This is to be a settlement of European immigrants. The concessionaires are Messrs. Vernet and Wilcke, who have got from the Santa Fé Government a grant of 100 square leagues, or about 900 square miles of land, with the condition to establish there a colony of 250 foreign families, 50,000 sheep, 4,000 head of cattle, and a corresponding number of mares and horses; the colony to be established within three years, but to commence the work within eighteen months, dated from the 18th October last.

The conditions of the contract provide that nothing is to be exacted from the first 250 families, but give each of them, after a certain time, about 80 acres of land in property. Of course each family will have to pay its passage from Europe, and the promoters, think they will find the right people in Holstein, Mecklenburg, and Hanover.

The land of this grant is 35 leagues north of the city of Santa Fé, just opposite to La Paz, in Entre Rios, and has ten leagues on the Rio de San Xavier and the Parana (adaptable for shipping ports), with 10 leagues depth—forming thus a 100 square leagues, or 555,000 acres in one compound.

"Wilcke, one of the impresarios, thus describes it:—The land is superior in quality; pasture being only gramilla and clover, good for cattle and sheep, and excellent for agricultural purposes. Not only wheat and Indian corn will prosper, but I think there cannot be found better land and climate for cotton and tobacco; the crop of each of these articles is safer and more lucrative than wheat and corn. It is not a generally known fact that the province of Santa Fé, during the Spanish dominion, was a cotton and tobacco-growing country; the latter article was famous for its superior quality, and surpassed even that of Paraguay."

The writer of these "letters" knows likewise that at Coronda, in the province of Santa Fé, a distance of about eight leagues south of the capital, cotton of such a superior quality was cultivated, that up to 1846 it was exported thence to Paraguay, for making the finer sorts of lace in the latter Republic.

Mr. Wilcke continues:—"Large forests are on this grant, which, if worked with diligence and steam-power, will form an incalculable source of wealth. At a very low estimate 100 to 150,000 silver dollars' worth of timber and charcoal should be yielded per annum. There are cedars of 70 to 90 feet high, and 6 feet in diameter; algarrabo, manduby, quebracho, guayaba, two or three descriptions of valuable dyeing wood, and many other trees of value whose names are too numerous to mention. And all these riches are not in the interior of the Argentine Confederation, far from cheap and easy communication, but on the coast of the majestic Parana.

LIGHT RAILWAYS.

We have received a copy of report which has been addressed by Mr. Charles Douglas Fox to Mr. Edward Haslewood, with reference to Norwegian light railways. The report gives the results of the observations made Mr Fox on a visit of inspection of the railways in Norway, and is interesting as showing now lines of a light and inexpensive character, yet suited to the requirements of only partially developed countries, can be constructed. Some of the lines are stated to have cost only £3,000 per mile, including rolling stock and stations, yet, though made so cheaply, the works are described as "generally of a substantial character," with strong timber bridges. Mr. Fox bears testimony to the "creditable state of repair" in which the lines are kept, and in which they are not "surpassed by an English railway," The ordinary working speed does not exceed 15 miles an hour, including stoppages, but a higher rate of speed is attained when required. Another railway, the Trondhjem and Storen line has cost £6,000 per mile. The general repairs on this line employ only one man per mile. Mr. Fox concludes his report by remarking:—"I have pleasure in recording my opinion that these lines are capable of carrying a very considerable traffic with economy and safety, at speeds exceeding 12 miles per hour, and that these light railways are fully equal to the necessities of this or any other rising country, such as Greece or Honduras."—Railway News.

THE LOSS OF THE FANNY.

The two men who turned up at Ajo, and from whom the information was taken, remain there for the present, as they were not considered well enough to be sent up here. The report does not say what became of the remainder of the boat's crew, but that the boat was submerged, and two of the men got to Ajo on a plank. The report received was furnished by the Captain of the Port.

SAVINGS BANK.

BANK MAUA AND CO.

No. 103 Calle de Cangallo,

BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks, artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and will open a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo, from Nine a.m till Three p.m on Week Days, and on Sundays and Holidays from Ten a.m. to Twelve m., for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare

The bank of Mauá and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.

Buenos Ayres, September 19, 1865.

Cure your Sheep.

Pure Spirite of Tar, or the only cure for scab in sheep for sale in 1, 2, and 5 Gallon Tins at

TORRES & BARTON'S.
Defensa, Nos. 65, 67, 69.

THE ONLY CURE FOR FOOT ROT IN SHEEP.

And a certain destructor for maggots.

In all class of animals.

Let the sheep infected with this disease in the feet be put into a dry place, after remaining an hour, take a brush and cleanse the dirt from between the claws then shaking the bottle well, dip a stick or feather into the liquid and anoint the diseased part all over, after which let them stand dry for an hour; if properly applied, one application is generally sufficient.

To destroy maggots it may be used in the same manner but sometimes requires to be applied three times; it also cures all sort of ulcers arising from them, and may be applied to any cut to prevent the flies from forming maggots.

Experience has proved it to be the best preventive that can be applied after castrating stallions and one application of this liquid may save a valuable animal.

THE ONLY PURE PURGATIVES.

Purgation in all cases of Indigestion, Constipation, Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Liver, Speen and Kidney Complaints, in Small Pox, Scarlet Fever, Billious Fever, and other malignant Fevers, is the only sure means of cure. But to accomplish this end it is necessary that purgatives that will expel the facces and diseased humors from the system, without producing weakness, irritation, straining, tenesmus, or piles, be used. All others are hurtful and will never cure the patient. Dr. Radway's Pills are the only pure purgative pills in use. One to six boxes will perfect a cure—not only relieve, but cure. COTTON GINS.

The Report states that "the two Gins exhibited by Burgess & Key were found capable of ginning a greater quantity of Cotton than all the other Gins of different systems."

The many improvements made in these Gins by Burgess & Key, have been the result of experiments made on every variety of Cotton, and also from experiences in Egypt, India, Italy, Greece, Smyrna, Australia, &c., &c. where many of the largest Ginning Establishments, have adopted these Gins, and in one case twenty-one of them are used in one establishment, each of which will turn out 300 lbs. of clean cotton per "hour."

The capacity of the Gins varies from 26 to 300 lbs. of clean Cotton per hour, according to the size.
